

Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement

Directions: Correct any errors in pronoun-antecedent agreement, by rewriting each sentence. If the sentence is correct as is, write C.

1. Chimpanzees raised in captivity cannot survive on its own in the wild.

---

2. People have donated your time and money to build chimpanzee shelters in Africa.

---

3. Jane Goodall, a famous wildlife expert, promised she would help set up the shelters.

---

4. In the wild, a baby chimp might nurse from their mother for as long as five years.

---

5. At the shelters, baby chimps receive his or her milk from bottles.

---

6. Each caretaker, as part of their job, must teach the chimps new survival skills.

---

7. After one female chimp had lived for years in a cage, it had to learn how to climb trees.

---

8. When a male orphan became sick, he lost all its hair.

---

9. People named him Uruhara. We named him for an African word that means "bald."

---

10. In the sanctuary, Uruhara received lots of love and good care. Now he has hair again!

---